“ It is with much sadness that I read the attached obituary today (9/15/21). My husband Rick and I met Eileen and Otto when we were living in Oscoda, Michigan, our husbands being in the USAF, stationed at Wurtsmith AFB. Eileen and I became very good friends, both coming from similar backgrounds in the UK. We spent a lot of time together - young ladies, a little bit homesick, reminiscing about home and what we'd left behind. At the time I had a very small baby, who she adored. We kept in touch for almost 60years, usually with a Christmas card and updating letter, which my husband and I always looked forward to. We visited Eileen in El Campo once when we were doing a coast-to-coast trip from South Carolina to California. A couple of years ago, we did not receive a Christmas card from Eileen which was most unusual and we did wonder if she was ailing. I found her name on Facebook and tried to contact her via that medium, unsuccessfully. Then, today, I was thinking of her and I found this obituary which as I said above, I read with much sadness. However, it does bring some closure after we lost touch. Our sympathy to Daryl and family. Sincerely, Rosemary and Rick Canipe, Myrtle Beach, SC

“ I worked with Eileen for many years at the garment factory. She always had a smile on her face and was a pleasure to work with. She and I visited and shared family memories. She truly loved her family and will be missed. 🙏🙏🙏 Mary Maerz Lewis

“ Eileen and I worked side by side for 13 years at I.C. Every minute was a pleasure. She was a wonderful person. We found something to laugh about every day. We could not have gotten along better and even though I was about the fifth purchasing agent she had to "break in", she was always helpful, gracious, and willing to share her encyclopedic knowledge of the inventory and supplies. For that I will be forever grateful.

Eileen never lost her English accent (although there were a few words I won't mention here, that she could pronounce in perfect Texan). Almost every day, I would ask her how much of some fabric, trim, or supply item was currently in stock. Her inevitable answer would be "Oh, nah a lah." Translation: "Oh, not a lot". She was very proud of her heritage. She spoke often about growing up in England during the war, and what it was like moving to El Campo to raise her family

Eileen seemed to be a person of boundless energy. She could be all over the factory at once, despite the fact that she had the habit of staying up all hours of the night. Once I asked her why she stayed up so late. Her reply was, "I'm afraid I'll miss something!"

Well, I know she will be missed by Daryl and her family. My prayers go out to all of them. It hurts my heart to know she's gone.

“ I had the pleasure to know Eileen as a co-worker at New ICM. She was dedicated to her job and was so kind. I often "caught up" with her in HEB until she left town. She was a wonderful person. I pray for her family as they grieve her loss.
