Margaret is survived by her son, Doyle C. Smidt of El Campo; daughter and son-in-law Melissa and Kurt Liles and grandchildren Lindsey and Landon Liles of Frisco TX; also survived by her devoted sister Susan Sands Pharoan of Coeburn Virginia. She was preceded in death by her parents Cecil and Elsie Sands; sisters Doris Snead, Clara Bartlett, Nancy Hefner, Shirley Thompson, and Phyllis Sobczynski; and by Vernon Doyle Smidt.

A memorial service will be planned at a later date at the First Presbyterian Church in El Campo. Donations may be made to Houston Hospice - El Campo branch; the ECMH Sunshine Ladies; or the First Presbyterian Church in El Campo.

“ Melissa, Doyle and family, my mother and I were saddened to hear of Margaret's passing. We thought so highly of her and she was a sweet and kind friend. Margaret would honk and wave to me when she would see me working in the yard. She would occasionally drive through the U-drive and visit with me from the car. I will miss her visits and I hold dear the sweet memories I have of her. May God grant you His comfort and peace and may Margaret rest in peace.

“ Margaret was a special lady. We have great memories of her as a family friend, our boys preschool teacher and a community servant. She was beautiful inside and out. Our prayers go out to her family during this time of grief.

“ As her youngest sister, Margaret and I shared a very special bond of love and respect. I looked up to her as a child and as a mature sister, we shared so many wonderful times together when I lived in Austin and visited her in El Campo over the years. When she could join up with the sisters and our mother in Baltimore, it was always a good time. The last few years will be the most endearing to me as I was able to spend precious time with her as she was in declining health. I want to thank Margaret's close and dear friends who were life long El Campo friends to her and as she enriched them in friendship, they did so to her as well.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Margaret's passing. She was my lovely neighbor for 40 years. As single women we shared many chores tending to our huge yards. Killing snakes, trapping armadillos, or whatever. We always had a good laugh about our encounters. We knew we could call on each other always, and we did. I am so thankful that she stopped by right before Christmas to say hello. She looked beautiful as always. She was a wonderful lady, neighbor and dear friend to me always. I have really missed her over the last year. Just not the same not seeing her out in the yard. My prayers to Melissa and Doyle. God bless you my sweet friend. I will always miss you. Rest In Peace.
