“ A fierce warrior for God, for the under-served, pragmatic and determined. She didn't mince words and left no stone unturned when helping her many students. Heaven has gained a true servant this day.

“ My memories go back a little further than others. I first met Maryann when Father , at that time living above the church found her to become our principal at St. Peters. See, the pastor at that time planned to dismiss the sisters teaching at St. Peters and we were without a principal. She answered the call and the rest is history. My husband was Edward Heusinger and in the position of head of the council when the pastor decided to close the school with little or no notice and we had this problem . God never let us down and nor did Maryann. Will always think of her with the best of feelings. Pruny Heusinger

“ My favorite memory of Aunt Mary Ann was playing cards with her and Sister Alfreda and Sister Rosemary, when I was a child. We laughed a lot and had so much fun! I will miss your sense of humor and your wonderful laugh.

“ I was honored to know Mary Ann and Prince. She was one of those rare people known as a giver. After my mother died ,she an prince moved in next door and was there thru the darkest of days. Always there to lend a ear or a card on a special occasion. My apartment is full of her knitted presents and a testament to her kindness. The world is diminished without her and i will miss her.

“ I had the great privilege and honor to work under Mary Ann. Not only was she a mentor and principal, but she also was also a friend. She always encouraged me and gave me the gift of teaching creatively. Mary Ann loved to volunteer me for things even when I was not going to. I love to think back on the good times we had, even when she would announce to the faculty "oh by the way I volunteered us to be.." or " I nominated us for this...". She will always be held in my heart and I will dearly miss her. I know that she is at peace and will be a part of everyone who's life she touched. My prays go out to her family. May god bless all of you with his peace and comfort.
