

Albert Ortiz

October 20, 1966 - September 30, 2024

Albert Ortiz, 57, of El Campo, TX passed away September 30, 2024. He was born on October 20, 1966 to Walter and Beatrice Ortiz. Albert was an accomplished dedicated hard worker who retired from Phillips 66 after 31 years as a shift lead operator.

He is survived by his loving wife of 36 years, Lene (Maria) Ortiz; son Jonathon Ortiz and wife Leslie, and daughter Jenna Martin and husband Trey; 3 grandsons Nicholas Ortiz, Seth Ortiz, and Maverick Martin; granddaughter Alora Martin; father, Walter Ortiz; sisters Donna Ortiz and Christine Soliz; and brother Ruben Ortiz.

Albert was preceded in death by his mother Beatrice Ortiz.

In honor of Albert's wishes, there will be a private celebration of life with no formal services. Instead of flowers, the family welcomes donations to <https://www.alz.org/> as an expression of sympathy for Alzheimer's research in honor of Albert's mother, the late Beatrice Ortiz.

The most amazing man, husband, father, Popo, son, brother, uncle, and friend who will always be loved and truly missed.

“ To Lene and all family and friends. Words cannot express the sorrow I feel for your family. Albert was a wonderful person and will be greatly missed by everyone! I'm going to miss seeing him at the grocery store. He would always smile and talk about those grandbabies! I know he'll be watching that new granddaughter from up above and beyond there protecting all of you! Hugs, Love and prayers to each of you. Special prayers of strength and understanding! I love you all ❤️🙏

“ One of the greatest honors in my life was to work along side Albert. We enjoyed so many laughs together. He was not just a remarkable worker but also an incredible person who touched the lives of everyone around him. His hard work, kindness, and laughter will be greatly missed. During this difficult time, please know that my prayers are with you and all who were fortunate enough to know him. With heartfelt condolences,

“ I worked with Albert for 30 years at the Phillips Petroleum refinery in Old Ocean. It was a joy working with him and a pleasure to have Albert as a good friend. My sincere sympathy is extended to his family and, like all his friends who loved him, will never forget what an impact this honorable man has had on my life. Rest easy, Albert!
