

Albina Vanek Krutilek

September 10, 1935 - May 13, 2019

Albina (Vanek) Krutilek, 83, El Campo, passed away on May 13, 2019. She was born September 10, 1935 in Calliham, Texas to the late Ludvig and Annie Lopanec Vanek. Albina is survived by her loving son Steven Krutilek of El Campo, a brother Eddie Vanek of Victoria along with numerous Nieces and Nephews.

She was married for 59 years to the late Joe Krutilek. She was a homemaker who enjoyed the great outdoors. Hobbies included hunting, fishing, and photography. A favorite pastime was collecting antiques and listening to polka music with her husband. Albina was best known as a retiree from the original Walmart tending to the pet/hardware department.

Visitation will be 3–7 p.m. Thursday, May 16, 2019 at Triska Funeral Home and funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. at Triska Funeral Home with Father Michael Rother officiating. Burial services will follow at graveside Garden of Memories Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Alan Prybil, Everett Sklar, Jimmy Genzer, Mark Prybil, Ricky Vanek and Roy Green. Honorary Pallbearers: Charlie Vanek Jr, Jerry Vanek, Gage Vanek, Tripp Vanek, and Levi Genzer.

Memorial Donations in honor of Albina can be made to Houston Hospice – El Campo or donor's choice.
