“ Dear Aunt Aline,

It's hard to believe that you are gone.

I shall miss visiting you in your corner apartment next to that big open pasture. I always looked forward to having lunch with you and taking a drive in the country. It was a part of visiting Texas and enjoying the company of a wonderful aunt.

I don't know if I ever mentioned this, but whenever I drink hot tea out of a real china tea cup, I think of you and your Royal Albert Old Country Roses. I don't know what your favorite colors are, but I think they should be the colors of the roses in the tea cup.

It's 10:00 a.m. in Ganado right now. Your service has started. Sure do wish I could be there. Michigan has always been just a bit too far.

Now you are in Heaven and, I do believe, right next to Uncle Louis.

I shall miss you. Wish we could have had more visits.

Love,

Gloria

“ Mrs Galow, also known to me as Lady, has been a much bigger part in my life than she could ever have imagined! My only life long friend! Mrs Galow and I had many good times filled with laughter on our sleepovers and she taught me the value of a good cheese sandwich. I always enjoyed thumbing through her photo albums and hearing the descriptions and stories that came with them. Lady always made me feel special, as did her sisters Dolly and Mable. I regret that as I grew older it became harder to spend time with her but she was never far from my thoughts. I introduced Mrs Galow to my children as one of my most favorite people ever and I occasionally make them a cheese sandwich just like she made them for me and make sure they know where it came from! Mrs. Galow ranked right up there alongside grandma status, but she was so much more than that to me. I hope that she is able to rest in peace knowing that she made a huge difference in someones life. She will be greatly missed but the memories will always remain! I will always appreciate you and all you did for me throughout the years Lady! I love you Mrs. Galow!

“ Mrs. Galow was a very good friend to my mother in law, Della Jo Herrington, for years. After Della Jo passed away, we often thought of Mrs. Galow & wondered how she was doing. Her friendship with Della Jo was always appreciated by us. Prayers to the family.
