

Altje Ann Manske Egmon

March 1, 1942 - December 2, 2024

Altje Ann Manske Egmon, 82, of El Campo, Texas, passed away on December 2, 2024. She was born on March 1, 1942 in El Campo, Texas, to the late Melvin H. Manske and Altje F. Rosenboom Manske.

She graduated from El Campo High School, attended Wharton County Junior College, and earned a bachelor's degree from Sam Houston State Teachers College. She later obtained a master's degree in education from The University of Houston-Victoria. She met her late husband, Dennis D. Egmon, while at WCJC, and they married on May 30, 1964. Through Dennis' work, they moved around in their early years of marriage living in Texas, New York, and Michigan. They settled in El Campo, where they spent most of their marriage and raised their four children.

Altje was a life-long educator, having taught as an elementary school teacher not only at Fort Bend ISD and Dickinson ISD for several years, but at El Campo ISD for thirty years.

She was a charter member of Christ Lutheran Church in El Campo. Her faith and her church were very important to her, and her life of service was a testament to that. Over the years, she has served her church community as council president, the CLC Women's Circle bible study president, Sunday school teacher and pianist, as well as having served on numerous church committees.

She is survived by her daughters Beth Egmon of Sugar Land, Cheryl Egmon of El Campo, and Laura Egmon (Landon Schwausch) of Pflugerville; son Wade Egmon (Cristina) of Friendswood; grandchildren Caleb, Hallie, and Owen Egmon; brother Richard Manske of El Campo; sisters in law Rochelle Manske of Houston, Elaine Berg of Defreestville, New York, and Peggy Manske of Murfreesboro, Tennessee; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, and brothers Thaine Manske and Charles Manske.

A memorial service to celebrate the life of Altje will be held at 2:00 pm at Christ Lutheran Church, 1401 Ave I, El Campo, Texas, on Sunday, December 8th, with Pastor Wayne Clement officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Christ Lutheran Church Youth Fund.
