“I pray that from His glorious, unlimited resources He will empower you with inner strength through His Spirit. Then Christ will make His home in your heart as you trust in Him. Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong. And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep His love is. May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God. Now all glory to God, who is able, through His mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think.” Ephesians 3:16-20.

I know that your faith is sustaining you during this time of great sorrow. Hurting with you as we grieve such a beautiful soul and praying that you are strengthened, sustained, and comforted. Anna is now fully complete, safe in His arms.

“ Remembering all the great times we had together: Going out to eat, catching the latest movie, driving to Louisiana to try our luck out at those slot machines and making sure to eat out at a new place all the time, going to Las Vegas all those years and walking that LONG strip to catch all the souvenir shops, taking that trip to the Bahamas where we were snorkeling and were scared to death when we thought a shark was coming straight at us 🐼....going to Ghost town in Arizona and loving the gorgeous scenery and wonderful food...OMG! I could go on and on.....and all the plans we had for future....well, my sweet sister, I'm so sorry we didn't take that round the world trip or go dig for diamonds .... don't worry I'm sure we'll see each other again and have more fun than I can even imagine. You're one of God's little angels now so you can come visit me in my dreams...you know I like to dream in chapters. My love for you will never end; my beautiful memories of you...I will cherish. I will carry you in my heart every day of my life. Know that you were dearly loved. Rest In Peace my beautiful sweet sister.

“ I am happy I got to know Annabelle! She had that funny little response when I'd ask her questions. " I don't know" and have that little pixie smile.

She loved her family but was pretty quiet at work. She was a great team player and worked hard for her students. I think the best part of knowing Annabelle was meeting her mother and her family. I am thankful for Inez and the fun time when me & my husband sat with Inez and Annabelle at a Pink Elementary Christmas Party at Berryhill's in Sugarland. We laughed all night! I told Inez to stop trying to steal my husband. I told Larry I hope your happy with your new girlfriend! Larry can't remember diddle squat but to this day he knows when I say : " I saw your girlfriend", he knew Exactly who I was talking about!

I had the privilege of attending Annabelle 'a birthday party this year. Her family was so kind and I know you will miss her. I also had the blessing of saying a prayer with Annabelle last week. I am grateful for our Lord and savior Jesus Christ who met us in that room. The Lord has peace and strength for each of Annabelle 's family members. I will trust and believe God to help each family member grieve but cherish both the memories of Inez and Annabelle. Thank you Gonzalez family for sharing your mother and sister with me for 13 years. I will continue to pray for you just as I have prayed since Inez passed away. With all my love and sincere sympathies,

“ We always say that a person loses his or her battle to the illness, what we often fail to remind ourselves is that Annabelle although lost her battle she did not lose the war....her war was won because she truly is in victory because she is free and in the arms of a loving God!
