“ I am so sorry you lost your Annie Mae. She and I would visit each time we ran into each other. She was my friend. Annie Mae's mother took care and cooked for my deceased husband, Ellwood, and his brother and two sisters at least 70 years ago. We still talk about Mrs. Topalinic's french fries. Please know how saddened I am about your loss. May the memories you hold near and dear to your heart be your strength. God bless you all. With love, Dot Hermansen
