“ Mr. Mach was one of the kindest, gentlest men I have ever known. He once told me that as young man, he made up his mind to always do the right thing regardless of what others in his company did. I always found that very admirable and thought very highly of him because of his values. He was a sweet man was a good sense of humor and we shared many laughs over the years. Arnold Mach was a true gentleman in every sense of the word. He will be greatly missed by many.
