What a sweet lady which I had the pleasure of bowling with on Monday nights. Never without that sweet smile and so soft spoken voice. What a beautiful angel smiling down upon us. So sorry for your loss and may you and your son find comfort in that she was so loved by all. God bless

I never knew her last name or her maiden name. I just knew her name was Barbara. Met her when she worked at the First State Bank on Alabama Rd. She was the kindest and the most helpful person. She always had a smile on face when she greeted you. She will be missed by all she waited on. But especially her family. My deepest Sympathy to her husband and family member. God's Blessing and Strength.

“ A beautiful lady, always a smile! I saw her not too long ago at the bank. The first thing she did was to ask me about Will! She was always thinking about others. A caring, gentle lady who will be greatly missed!

“ George and the family, please accept my deepest sympathies. Barbara will be greatly missed by many and she touched so many people with her beautiful, sweet smile. I have known Barbara since our young teenage years and she never had an offensive reflection of any person. Her heart was pure and I will always remember how she cared, loved and shared her heart with a dear friend of mine, George Mondrik . Heaven will be a brighter place with her beautiful, shining smile. My thoughts and prayers are with her loved ones. May your Faith give you comfort and strength during this time. God Bless you all.

“ I was always glad to see Barbara at the bank - always so cheerful, kind and helpful- going out of her way to help. She was such a cute sweet lady with a lovely personality. I will miss her smile and bright eyes. She was a cousin to my sister's friend Joyce Davis so we enjoyed sharing that connection. The bank will be a sadder place without her but she will go on spreading sunshine in Heaven.
