“ God called home an amazing women. A great educator who taught many students to read and write in a second language. Today thanks to her many of these people have used this new found wisdom to better their lives. Because of her we have many that can now help their own children with thier homework, do thier own applications, or any other item that they will use the English language. She helped build their confidence and grown as individuals. It is not easy coming into a new country with out know the native language. She help instill this and ensured that they knew this. Because if her many of her former students are now Their have their own businesses, are college graduates are able to help thier children where as they had no one to help them but her. She did more than many teachers have done for their students. Many thanks to you Mrs. Rocha Frances Patricia Rocha
