“ I met Bernard through work. What a wonderful guy he was. I have such great memories of him. He loved his kids so much. And when he talked about his wife his blue eyes just lit up. Your family will always be in my prayers

“ When Bernard married into our family, we found him to be just what Aunt Linda needed. He was sweet, kind, funny & just became one of us immediately. They made each other happy and we could see it! We always looked forward to their visits and listening to his stories he shared. We will miss him tremendously and are deeply sorry for your loss-our loss too. We love you Linda.

“ I'll miss you, Bennie. You and I grew up together and were buddies all through grade school. Many times we kids walked across the open fields to visit each other. I thought your mother Bessie was really neat and loved the way she talked. The hot baked bread, butter, and jelly she gave us was perfect for two hungry playing kids. I admired the unusual huge vineyard on your farm and which grandfather Joe (your daddy) forbade us to play on or in. Our attempts at radio communication were intriguing in those early years of elementary radio. A few times we were fortunate (guarded by our angels) that we were not maimed or killed by some adventurous experiments, but we thought we were careful. My mother Vlasta tried to speak Czech with you several times when we were young, but it was a struggle. I didn't understand any of it. You had an interesting way of expressing things. During high school years I went to an out of town school, but we still found time to occasionally play games of pool (5 cents a round) with cousin Victor in town. I'll miss you, Bernard. Your passing emphasizes how many of my male contemporaries are gone and never coming back. Brother Michael and I are nearly the only ones left. I'll be praying for you and with many Holy Mass offerings for you, in case you are delayed on your way to Heaven.
