“ I can remember many years ago, Berneice had diapered Carsen in her arms and was slowly walking around the living room with him, pointing things out and discussing everything on all of the shelves and walls. I have always remembered that. It was a cool way to have quality time with a baby who wasn't yet talking.

“ When I think of Mrs. Collins, elegance, talent and beauty come to mind. I think of loving wife, mother and grandmother. I don't remember what we talked about, but I always considered it a privilege to sit by Mrs. Collins at Rotary Club after she had played the club's obligatory two songs on the piano to keep us on key. Such a sweet woman. What an honor it was to have known her.
