“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. Boyd was a 'one of a kind' never to be forgotten. He was as much a character as his side kick, my brother Dick. Put those two together and watch out! Boyd told me many unknown stories of Dick after his passing. We laughed, we cried and I know now those two are together again telling whoppers and laughing out loud. RIP Boyd Foltyn.

“ Sad to hear of the loss your Dad, Phyllis, Marilyn, Michael, and Darrell. We have lost one of the last true cowboys in Boyd. The image of his big moustache over the stub of a cigar is very vivid in our minds. Just as vivid is the image of a cowboy hat, walking shorts and cowboy boots he wore on some of those hottest summer days. He will be remembered around Douglass as one of the best cowboys and fence builder ever in these parts. May God comfort you all during this time of bereavement.
