“ I want you to know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers. Brandy was an amazing person and wonderful mother to those beautiful boys. I won't be there tomorrow and i want you know that you are in my heart and my prayers. Brandy and her boys are in the hands of God and he will give you the strength to pull through. My family and I want you to know that we are praying for the entire family!

“ I did not know Brandy or her sons, but my heart aches for her family and what they must be going through right now. It was a senseless tragedy. My prayers are with each one of you. I'm sure that there are many people who are offering their prayers at this time as well. I pray that the Lord will give you the strength to endure the days ahead. May you have the faith to know that someday you will be united with those you've lost.

“ I remember it like it was yesterday. We would all be in the commons area and i would do something crazy. Brandy would laugh. Then its like it was a chain because everyone would end up laughing until our stomachs hurt. I enjoyed the years God has given us with her. I remember Jaydin in my daughters head start class and he would tell me,you know im kin to your daughter and i would act surprised and say how did you know, he would say because my grandmothe told me :) he waa always smiling and jolly. And Davian was a mommas boy who would always be in his moms arms. May God continue to bulid up in your lives and strengthen you day by day. My prayers are with yal.

“ We did not know Brandy or her sons, but our hearts go out to each one of you in her family. We will never understand this senseless tragedy, but know that God has his own plans for each of us. We have been praying for all of you and will continue to do so. Know that God will give you the strength and courage to get through these difficult days and months ahead. Brandy and her sons will always live on in your hearts.

“ To the Cerny family I did not know Brandy or the boys but she was friends with my niece. My heart was broken when I heard the news up this. El Campo is my home and it hurts to know that we have things like this taking place there. God knows best and he has the last word so my prayer is that you guys keep looking to God and he will help you through this.

“ God is holding Brandy, Devian, and Jaydin in his arms. They may not be here physically but they will always be here spiritually. We may not know or understand why he took these three innocent lives from us, but he has a plan for everything. They will always be watching over their family and friends.

“ Dear Lloyd and Diane, I am so very sorry for your loss. When I heard the name Brandy Cerny, I knew instantly who her parents were. I remembered after all these years. My heart was broken at the news. There is nothing worse than losing your child and grandchildren. I remember when Brandy was a baby. Such a cute little one. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May God bless Brandy, her two sons and all of you. May God also give you the strength you need as you face the weeks ahead.

“ i did not know Brandy nor her precious boys, but my heart aches for the family of this fine young lady and her two sons. This is harder to accept due to the manner in which this happened; senseless and so unnecessary. The children were innocent and so was she. May God give her family all the strength that they need during these trying times and may you find comfort knowing that so many people are praying for you and are keeping you in their thoughts and prayers. May God bless.
