

Carl Wayne Pemberton

September 27, 1945 - December 24, 2025

Carl “Popo” Wayne Pemberton, 80, of Louise, passed away on December 24, 2025 after a courageous battle with cancer. He was born on September 27, 1945 in Kingsville to the late Carl F. Pemberton and Louise McNabb. He was a U.S. Navy Veteran and a member of St. Procopius Catholic Church. Carl’s journey in the oilfield industry was a true testament to hard work and perseverance. Starting from the bottom, he dedicated himself to learning every aspect of the trade, eventually rising to become a highly respected oilfield consultant. After decades of commitment and achievement, Carl retired 15 years ago, leaving behind a legacy of professionalism and integrity.

Carl’s greatest joy in life was his family. Carl’s heart belonged to his beloved wife, Betty. Their love story was one of deep devotion and unwavering companionship. He cherished every moment with his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren—each one was his most treasured gift. His love for them was unconditional, and he never missed an opportunity to remind them how proud he was. Beyond his devotion to family, Carl was known for his quick wit and clever sense of humor. He had a knack for sharing wisdom through memorable sayings and quotable lessons that will live on in the hearts of those who knew him.

Carl found peace and joy in the great outdoors, especially when fishing and hunting. These weren’t just hobbies—they were treasured moments that deepened his bond with his son, Craig. Together, they shared countless adventures, laughter, and quiet conversations that created an unbreakable connection between father and son. Carl's love for his family extended beyond those trips; his daughter Melissa will forever be Daddy's little girl, a title she proudly holds in her heart. His devotion to his children was as strong as his love for life, and those memories will remain a source of comfort and inspiration for all who knew him.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Betty Jean Sless Pemberton of Louise; son, Craig Pemberton and wife Jennifer of Richmond; daughter, Melissa Jozwiak and husband Steven of Richmond; grandchildren, Devyn Waggoner and husband Trey of Richmond, Cameron Jozwiak and fiancé Erin O'Brien of Hutto, Savannah Jozwiak of Richmond and Alexis Pemberton of Richmond; great-grandchildren, Benten and Myles Waggoner and Hadley Brooke; brothers, Lester Ellison and wife Syluvia of Lolita and Billy Henke and wife Denise of Hallettsville and many loving nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Carl was preceded in death by his parents.

Visitation will begin at 1 p.m. on Monday, December 29 at Triska Funeral Home. The funeral service will begin at 2 p.m. with Pastor Lloyd "Pop" Tyson officiating. Burial will follow at St. Procopius Cemetery in Louise.

Pallbearers will be Cameron Jozwiak, Trey Waggoner, Troy Sless, Scott Henke, Shelby Henke and B.J. Ellison. Honorary pallbearers will be Derek Sless, Daryl Chromcak, Eugene Socha, Gustavo "Papi" Camacho, Bill Woods, Chuck Lawson and Jason Supak.

Memorial donations in memory of Carl may be made to the Louise Alter Society or the Louise Volunteer Fire Department.
