“ Carol Jean and I were pals and classmates at ECHS and graduated in 1975. I had not seen her in years, but attended the visitation when her mother passed away several years ago. I had a great visit with Carol and it seemed like no time had passed at all, and we just picked up where we left off from the last time we had seen each other. I offer her family and friends my deepest and most heartfelt sympathy at this difficult time. I hope that fond memories of her will comfort you in the days ahead. Rest in peace, Carol Jean.

“ Pete and Amy, I am sorry for your loss. I worked with Carol for several years. She was always the first one to laugh. We had lots of fun at work. She was very good at her job.
I was able to meet Carol and Joyce Berry for lunch several years ago. The three of us started laughing and telling stories like we saw each other every day.
When people are gone it matters what kind of shadow they cast. Carol cast a shadow of fun, laughter, sincerity and caring. I am enriched and a better person for getting to know her.
Peace to all of the family in this difficult time.
Sincerely,
Mark Schweitzer

“ Carol Jean, Damn I miss you so much already. As a friend of yours said nothing is permanent, not life especially. So my lesson from this sadness is to live life to the absolute best each day in honor of Carol Jean! I remember back in the days at Fish Camp or as Carol loved to call it ' The Bay House' when they had the blue trailer (mansion) up on piers. We sat many a night enjoying the view, sunsets etc sipping Brandy, then Tequila, what a great time! A lot of good memories there! My son kind of got adopted by Carol Jean in her heart, I know that relationship meant a lot to him. As Amy and Cuatro grew up together at The Bay House their friendship grew as well. And now Doctor Amy, wow very proud of that young Lady. Carol was indeed a special Lady, her sense of humor, her smart ass wit was touchable by no one. :) I gave up years ago trying to keep up with her cause I knew she would kick my ass! But i would have never let her have know that. A true Texan, Patriot, and an all around fantastic person ! Carol Jean and Harold Lee are together again may she rest in peace along side her POPs.

“ Carol lived on the next block from me when I was a kid. We used to play together quite a bit. My mama always called her "Giggle Britches" because Carol was always laughing and happy. My condolences to the family at this difficult time.
