Charlie was preceded in death by his mother, Mary Ann Kainer. He is survived by his father, Lawrence Kainer and significant other Pat Raska; sister Teri Pfister and husband Jay; brother Tommy Kainer; nieces Katie Pfister, Sarah Jabbia and husband Spencer and great-nephew Trevor, Emily Pfister, Rebecca Kainer; nephew Joey Kainer; and many aunts, uncles, cousins and lifelong friends.

“ A few months back Charlie and I had a great discussion about Jesus Christ. Charlie was excited to talk about the Savior. Charlie acknowledged understanding that the answer to the need of our hearts is Christ. Death and loss are never easy, however, both are a guarantee in this life. There is a way to escape the second death. He (Jesus) is the way. Ask Him to save you, repent and turn from sin and follow Him as Lord. Charlie will be missed.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time. It is so hard to believe that Charlie is no longer with us. I already miss him scurrying up and down the halls of Martin Electric every day with pure determination. And him asking me to proof his emails or just letting him vent about bad days and brag about the good days that he had. Also making sure that I had plenty of bit-o-honey and Wintergreen Life Savers for him. He was a great friend and co-worker and I miss him dearly.

Kelly, you were blessed to have a co-worker like Charlie. But, of course, you already knew that. Grieving with you.....
