“ Many years ago Charlie told me and another coworker , we are going to have a fish fry tomorrow. Both of you are going to bring the fish, and we did. I remember Charlie putting all the flour, fish and spices in a brown paper bag and shaking them up. Then frying all the fillets and french fries up. Damn that was really good. Still remember all the good years. I really miss those years, I would give all these years to have all those years back. RIP Charlie, you were one of the best Supervisors I ever had.

“ Alvin, Charlotte, Steven & Chuck, Uncle Charles was one of the kindest, most loving men I have known. We always enjoyed our visits with him. Mama loved him dearly and appreciated him coming to help her out when she made her homemade noodles. She also appreciated him coming to visit when she came to Weimar.
May his precious memory live on through each of you as you share them family and friends. He will forever be in your hearts.
Lots of love, hugs and blessings,

James & Monica Stock
