“ When I was a little girl and we lived down the street from them as my parents would say highway. I couldn't wait for the weekend and summer time to go visit my Uncle Charles and my Aunt Genda and all my cousins. We would run up there and a lot of the times he would get us to do some chores, but he would pay us a quarter to do so. Back in the 60's a quarter bought a lot of candy that we weren't suppose to have. On a hot summer day he would buy us popsicles to cool down. He always had a hug for us and a laughter as his mustache tinkled our cheek. I will miss him even though I know he is with his parents and all his brothers and sisters and son now. Love you Uncle Charles. I will see you someday again I know in heaven. ☐
