“ Deepest sympathy to my cousins. So wish I could have visited. We had so many happy memories growing up in the country at the El Campo farm. May Clara rest in peace.

Oh, such a good picture of Clara with a big smile. We had fun one Springtime working in the greenhouse, planting patio flowers & running errands. Clara was a special woman to thrive, nurture...and survive living in a house with 6 guys! A life well-lived. My heartfelt sympathy to the Mahalitic Family.

As a young County Agent, I remember field visits to help check cotton insects with Arthur and stopping by the house for a delicious home-baked "treat". Before too long, he was equally or more competent than I was and was even teaching neighbors to do their own counts. I recall your Mother attending a meeting where we were introducing the first issue of the Texas Farm Record Book -- and she faithfully used that for a number of years. I'm sure it served a valuable purpose before evolving into a highly technical computerized system. You boys were blessed with a great Mom and Dad, and I was privileged to have them as special friends and supporters during my 20 years as Colorado County Agent.
