“ Misty,
It has been one year now on this day since Colin passed on to the next world. I will remember this day and the events that happened the rest of my life. The whole group at the watermelon stand held hands and prayed for you and your family. We don't know why it had to happen but we thanked the LORD for the privilege of knowing Colin in the short time that we did. I pray that the hurt will ease up and that we continue to feel the love that we shared with Colin.

*Sincerely,
Ted Schoenfield*

“ Colin and my grandson Cayden Balcar were good friends and when I first met him I knew he was a special young man. They enjoyed the same hobbies ,fishing and hunting were always things they were doing. Colin was always welcome at our home and a joy to have around he will be missed. Misty I must say you raised a fine young man.

“ *Misty,
I only met Colin and you once when the both of you stopped by one of my fields when Colin was inquiring about driving a tractor. I was very taken by his respectful and pleasant demeanor. I am truly sorry and saddened over your tragic loss of your son. My prayers are for you and your family in this time of unimaginable grief.*
