“ My Sweet Daddy!! I love and miss u SO much already! Te Amo Papi! U were my King! U showed us SO much love! Unconditional love! No matter what we were going thru, u loved everyone of ur 10 kids so very much no matter what! U never judged us! U taught us SO much ! We always came first! Regardless ! The last few years of ur life was Really tough! U grew older and weary' But u always told us NOT to worry! Because u would get better! And u did! Many times! U went thru a lot! In and out of the hospital! We always thought we would lose u and then u would pull thru! As time went by we saw u getting weaker! And we hated seeing u jus going from ur bed to the dinner table and to ur recliner to watch t.v and sit by the window waiting to for one of ur children to come visit. We then bought u a bird bath and bird feeder so u could watch the birds while u waited for us! U really enjoyed that . U grew weaker and weaker! And u still told us u we're gonna get better! U were a very Strong man! Until the end when u could not even speak! And we told u it was time to let go! U still fought! U didn't want to leave us! We spent sleepless nights by ur side, taking care of u! We didn't care for we were repaying u for taking care of us for so many years! Until ur last breath u fought so hard not to leave us! U could not speak but as we expressed our love and appreciation to u, u squeezed our hands until ur last breath to let us know u heard us! When U took ur last breath we We're by ur side to say goodbye! After u took ur last breath, we opened ur curtains and opened ur window So u could fly high with the birds and fly high as I told u u would right before u passed! And I'm sure u did! R.I.P Daddy! We love u!
