“ This is sad news for me as I taught David at Wharton High School in 1978-79. We remained friends all these years, though didn't see each other very often, and always chatted when we could (usually at HEB). Rest in peace, David.

Sending my condolences to the Family during the loss of your beloved David. While reading the El Campo Leader News Obits...I saw the photo and I was like I think I know him.AFTER,reading more and I noticed he was a STOCKER at WALMART. I was like this is my DAVID WALMART ASSC. BACK IN 2000'S.at the EL Campo Walmart overnight crew! DAVID and I ALONG WITH MANY OTHERS ON THAT CREW WERE AMAZING AND VERY CLOSE CO-WORKERS.WE had each others backs through the good and the bad nights.I also adored MR.@ Mrs.CERNY they were a part of the Walmart Family also.I often ask where was David and The Cerny's after I left Walmart? David was a amazing young man HE was fun,polite,and hard working and always smiling..WE would ALL SWEAT around Walmart but we got it done on those late night shifts.I am sadden to read about his passing but know he is resting in the loving arms of his Savior.David always had a beautiful smile and even though your hearts may be heavy know that David's smile will be with you always.When I think of him I smile.MAY GOD GRANT YOU STRENGTH and COMFORT.
