“ Dear friends,

My deepest sympathy to you all in your loss. I will always remember the good times and laughs we shared when we worked together. I still have a necklace and earrings and also a crocheted throw Deborah made for me. I will always treasure these gifts as reminders of a special friendship we had. She was, perhaps, a little rough around the edges at times, but there was also a heart of gold for the people she loved in her life. She is no doubt helping God with the dogs and cats that are waiting at the Rainbow Bridge for their families.

RIP dear Deborah! And to you all; Betty, PeeWee, Kim and Cherie. May your good memories sustain you in the days ahead and may God give you peace and comfort.

*Luv you,
Carol Wied*
