“ Debbie was a wonderful lady- so full of life & joy. She always wore a smile despite the curves life threw her. I first met her when her son, Ricky, was in the first grade as I was his teacher. She was always ready to lend a hand. She will be greatly missed.

“ My dearest Friends, I loved your mom. She was such a dear dear friend, precious and strong in so many ways. She and I sat on the front porch step years ago and watched you kids play allowing us to share some special times together. My love to all of you. Please know how much we care. May my prayers be comforting in some way and help you be strong and live in a way that emulates her strength of character and love for all of you. You just need to pass those strong character traits on to your children. ❤️❤️❤️❤️
Our love and God's blessings to you all, Dot and Ellwood Hermansen
