December 6, 1942 - July 31, 2024

Dennis D. Egmon, 81, of El Campo, Texas, passed away at his home on July 31, 2024, after a valiant fight with mesothelioma. He was born on December 6, 1942, in East St. Louis, Illinois, to the late William Egmon and Wilma Egmon Johnson.

He graduated from Brazosport High School, attended Wharton County Junior College, and earned his bachelor's degree from Sam Houston State Teachers College. He later obtained his master's degree in Education Administration and Supervision and his Superintendent's certification from The University of Houston. Dennis had a varied career including work as a millwright, an engineer at General Electric, and an entrepreneur owning a local restaurant. But his most rewarding role was as an educator. Throughout his twenty-plus year career in education, he served as a teacher, coach, and Director of Career and Technology Education.

He is survived by his wife of 60 years, Altje Manske Egmon; daughters Beth Egmon of Sugar Land, Cheryl Egmon of El Campo, and Laura Egmon (Landon Schwausch) of Pflugerville; son Wade Egmon (Cristina) of Friendswood; grandchildren Caleb, Hallie, and Owen Egmon; sister Judy Northrup of Lake Jackson; brother Sean Egmon (Lisa) of Milan, Michigan; and numerous nieces and nephews. Dennis was preceded in death by his parents.

A memorial service to celebrate the life of Dennis will be held at 2:00 pm at Christ Lutheran Church, 1401 Ave I, El Campo, Texas, on Sunday, August 4, 2024, with Pastor Wayne Clement officiating.

“ "Coach" Egmon was one of the best teachers in Jr. High. His kids were a joy too, when I got to come hang out with them as babysitter. He was one of those teachers that left their mark on their student. Our sympathies to his family. ♡

I was a nurse anesthetist from 1980-87 in ElCampo. I had a lot of free time and Dennis and I spent many hours discussing the topic of the day and mainly firearms. He was brilliant man and I treasure the time and things I learned from Dennis. He was a great friend. Sorry to Altje and family.
