“ My beautiful faithful friend has departed this world and left the lingering sickness behind. Heaven was ready to welcome Diane to unite with so many souls gone before whom she loved and was loved in return. Her lovely kind spirit will always be remembered. She delighted the residents of Garden Villa for many years assisting me in the salon. The ladies looked forward to her hand massages each time their hair was done. She coddled the many old guys with massages too. She made many friends there with her gracious loving ways. My life was enriched by our years of friendship. Her journey here has ended but we will be together again with the happiness and joys of the angels singing praises to God. Your soul is at peace now knowing your faithfulness has been rewarded. You will be missed but always remembered by so many.
