

Dolores "Dee" Wilbeck

February 14, 1944 - April 29, 2026

Dolores "Dee" Wilbeck stepped on a rainbow at sunset April 29, 2026. She was 82 years old and a Valentine's Day baby born February 14, 1944. She was the oldest of four children born to William and Gladys Davis of Dallas, Texas.

A native of Cedar Hill, Dee was a student-athlete and Valedictorian of her high school class before graduating from North Texas University with a degree in Home Economics. Her teaching career eventually led her to El Campo, but it was a blind date at Texas A&M with the love of her life, Gary, that truly set her path. Married in 1966, the couple built a life rooted in faith and community. While Dee began as a teacher, her heart for service extended far beyond the classroom. She was a cornerstone of the First Presbyterian Church for nearly 60 years, serving as an Elder on the Session and rarely missing a Sunday in her usual second-row seat. She enjoyed volunteering to help others, particularly her three decades of service at the Gulf Coast Medical Center's Cancer Center, where she offered comfort and a friendly word to everyone she met.

Known affectionately as GranDee or MamaDee, she was a woman who loved BIG. Whether she was making a delicious Wacky cake, spending schedule-free days with family at the Bay at Port Alto, or spending hours at the grocery store because she simply had to visit with every neighbor she passed, Dee made everyone feel seen. She was a master quilter and a devoted member of the El Campo Casual Quilters. A handmade quilt from Dee was a true badge of honor and a testament to her affection. Above all, she was her grandchildren's most vocal cheerleader. From Missouri to the Hill Country, she packed love into every visit, ensuring that whether she was playing a competitive game of Hand and Foot or cheering them on via a livestream, her family always knew they were the center of her world. Her legacy of fierce friendship and joyful devotion lives on in the many quilts she stitched and the countless lives she touched.

She is survived by her sons Scott Wilbeck and his wife Julie, Lee Wilbeck and his wife Melinda, her brother William Davis and wife Glenda, sister Sally Boshier and husband Ron, and sister-in-law Linda Herrington. She has 6 grandchildren: Sydney Wilbeck, Maddie Wilbeck, Madeline Parker, Joseph Parker and his wife Olivia, and Edward Parker, and one great-granddaughter, Gracecyn Hope Parker who GranDee spoiled rotten. She is preceded in death by her parents William "Bud" Davis Jr. and Gladys Davis, her husband Gary Wilbeck, brother Joe Davis, brother-in-law Alan Wilbeck, sister-in-law Sue Piaszik, and granddaughter Emma Parker.

Visitation with the family present will be held at Triska Funeral home on Friday, May 8th from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Funeral services are Saturday, May 9th at 10am at the First Presbyterian Church of El Campo, followed by burial at Oaklawn Memorial Park.

To celebrate Dee's lifelong passion for quilting, the family invites those who own one of her handmade quilts to bring it to the service for a special display of her legacy.

Pallbearers will be Joe Parker, Eddie Parker, David Herrington, Brad Davis, Bubba Blair and Eldon Volk.

Memorial donations in memory of Dee Wilbeck may be made to First Presbyterian Church of El Campo, 312 Depot St., El Campo, TX 77437.

Ms. Wilbeck was one of my high school teachers in Home economics. What are the most patient loving teachers for teaching such qualities as sewing and cooking and home management. She was always joyful and kind a very pleasant person that I enjoyed going to her class. May miss Wilbeck rest in peace. My condolences to her family and friends and students for surely she was unforgettable.

“ Dolores was my neighbor growing up. We graduated together from Cedar Hill High School. We both went to North Texas and majored in Home Economics. We had a wreck on a motorcycle in her yard (we didn't get hurt bad). I spent a lot of time at her house. She was a kind loving person. I could not believe that she passed away on my 82nd. Birthday.

“ What a great lady and friend! Dee had many talents and I had the pleasure of attending quilt retreats at least once a year in Wimberley and occasionally down at the bay. It was a week of sewing, laughing, cooking and eating together! Dee made many beautiful quilts. Dee was so proud of her family. Her sons, Lee and Scott and their families brought her much joy! I had the pleasure of teaching Lee when he was in the 4th grade. Dee will be missed by many. Rest in peace dear friend.

“ My condolences to the family at this difficult time. What I remember about Dee is that she really liked cornbread. One Sunday, before our church fellowship meal, Dee came running up to me and asked, "Did you bring your Mama's cornbread?" I didn't know what to think as I hardly knew Dee at that time. She endeared herself to me at that moment and we shared many laughs in the days to come.
