“ A few months ago we were standing in line at Lums BBQ in Junction, TX and Donald was in front of us. We got caught up. He said when the house gets back to normal, we need to come for a visit. We wished him a smooth restoration. He was always so easy to talk to.

May the perpetual light shine upon him.

“ Barbara and family, you have my deepest and most heartfelt sympathy at this difficult time. My mother and father admired Mr. Naiser and were so very fond of him. They often spoke of happy times spent together. I pray that wonderful memories will bring you comfort in the days to come. May God grant you His loving peace.
