“ She was such a beautiful soul. Very nice lady, and such quick wit. Her husband was one of our patients, and I would always look forward to seeing them. My condolences to the family, and to you John, I'm so very sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers go out to you at these hard times. -Cynthia

“ We did not know Mrs. Bubela, but would like to contact one of the family, to exchange some info on the Puls and Germany. My Great-Great grandpa was Ernst Puls, born in 1837, at Province of Brandenburg in the village of Luggendorf, Germany. He passed away, in 1924, buried at Shiner, Tx. Cemetery, my Great Grandma was Marie Puls, .
My address is, velmonbuehring@yahoo.com. Thanks, and we would like to express our sympathy to all the family. Gods Blessings.

“ Mrs. Bubela was a special lady who translated German records and letters for me. She was also a gracious hostess when I took some German cousins to meet her so they could all speak German to each other.
