“ Dorothy and Willie were my friends many years ago when I had her as a client in my salon. He would sit out in his car reading the paper while she had her beautiful white natural curly hair cut and styled. In the hot Texas summertime, I would invite him in but he never accepted the invitation choosing to stay in his car. They were such a devoted loving gentle couple, one had to admire their love for one another. Dorothy was so talented in so many ways. She always dressed like a fashion plate wearing one of her own creations without a wrinkle showing anywhere. She always had something she was making for one of her grandkids. I was honored to be allowed to see the latest gift she was making many times in her home. She was a lovely soul who was greeted at Heaven's Gate by Willie her love. I'm sure he asked "what kept you so long"? She will be missed by her family and many friends. A life well lived and a life much loved. I love you Dorothy. Toodie
