“ Evelyn
I am so sorry to hear about your mother. She was always a very sweet lady. I remember the time you were spinning me around on that tire swing. You were spinning me so fast and wouldn't stop. I think I called you every name in the book, and probably made a few up. Your Mom came out that door and said "Evelyn, what's goin' on!!!" You were laughing so hard. If I remember correctly, you were on the ground by the time I staggered off the swing. She was a special "Momma".

“ *Evie, Tracy and Ray
Aunt Dorothy will truly be missed. Grandma and grandpa were there to welcome her home. She has been so ready to go for a long time. Now she can finally rest in peace. So glad we stopped to see her on the way to Tracy's wedding. Take care and know we are always here if you guys need us.*
