

Duane Lewis Mitchell

October 29, 1931 - September 8, 2024

Duane Lewis Mitchell, 92, of Midfield Texas, passed away Sunday, September 8th, 2024. He was born on October 29th, 1931, in Herford Texas to Melvin and Winnie Mitchell. He was an Army veteran, Mason, Shriner, and Union Pipefitter by trade, and traveled many roads during his construction supervision career.

He was preceded in death by his parents, wife Maudie of 70 years, and two sons, Burt and Larry.

He is survived by his son Curtis, grandchildren Kylun (Victoria) Mitchell, Mariah (Juan) Flores, and Duana (Eddie) David, 5 great grandchildren, and 1 great great grandchild.

His final request in his own words: "I do not want any service of any description. I want my friends and loved ones to remember me as they last saw me. Death should be like birth, a day of rejoicing, because I am better off than those I have left behind."

The family would like to thank the staff of Paradigm at the Prairies Nursing Home and the El Campo Memorial Hospital for their care during his final days.

Donations in memory Duane may be made to the Midfield Fire Department.
