“ My condolences to all of Dustin's family. It was a shock to see the obituary in this week's El Campo and Columbus papers, as I had not heard of his death. Many years ago he was in my high school religion class at St. Mary's at Nada, and I ran into him a couple of times through the years. One memory will always remain with me. One weekend when I was in charge of the "teen Mass" for the month, the person who was to be the Lector couldn't attend, and Dustin volunteered to fill in and came and did a fine job. His willingness to help meant a lot. I am so sorry and saddened that he is gone.
