“ Dearest Tina & Gary,
My sincerest condolences to both of you. I know that losing the person who is the closest relation that one can have is difficult and I send my prayers for her and for you to help you through your travail. She is a beautiful person and I know that she was the love of your family, but remember that we all have to travel this road to our final destination. God bless you and be with you to guide you through your sorrow. I am sorrow that I am unable to be present for her services.
With love,
Tom's Dad
