“ I met Mrs Mac this past spring when I visited Andrea. Naturally, I also met Mr. Mac too, and I enjoyed talking and eating Sunday lunch with both of them. Mrs. Mac was such a genuine lady, so friendly and kind, even though I was a stranger visiting El Campo and she knew me only through what Andrea had told her. I have very fond memories of sitting in their living room and chatting about past pets while fussing with Nessie (one of Andrea's "baboons").

My prayers go out to Mr. Mac and Andrea, but I know that Mrs. Mac is in a better place and can watch over them.

“ Dear Uncle Elvin and Andrea,
I'm so sorry for your loss. We always admired Aunt Edith and wished we could be more like her. :) She and Uncle Elvin mean so much to my mother (Patsy).

We can't ask for much more in life than to be married for 69 years and to pass away with your husband and your daughter there with you. You were lucky to have her, and she was lucky to have you.

My condolences.

“ We visited Andrea and her folks in El Campo back in 1998, and I'll always remember having a fun time with Edith and Elvin in their home; we all ate watermelon and it was delicious!! Edith had a wonderful, mischievous smile and I enjoyed talking with her. My condolences to Andrea and Mr. Mac.

“ To Mr. McCann and to Andrea, you have my sympathy. Although its been many years since we were neighbors, my mind envisions a thousand scenes from my childhood, playing just across the fence. Wonderfully good neighbors they were, full of kindness and the Christian practice of "love thy neighbor". My heart aches because yours aches. May God comfort both of you.

“ My first sight of Edith was when I journeyed home for the first time with Andrea from Missouri. There sat Edith & Elvin in their swing-rocker. Couldn't resist popping out of the car to say "Mom, Dad, we're home." The smile on their faces will always remain in my memory. They were always the first people I wanted to see when I visited. It was great fun to sit there & listen to her tell stories or tell Andrea & Elvin to stop making THE FACE. I laugh thinking of the times she tried to make it but it just didn't quite turn out.

Dear Lord,
When Edith shows you THE FACE, You will see the joy & laughter she brought to me. With much love, Tammy

“ When Andrea and I became friends, I visited their home and ate Miss Edith's tacos and Oreos. She was always very gracious about opening her home to me, and later, my family. Miss Edith was always interested in us and kind in remembering us with a card at Christmas and keeping up with our boys' activities. She was part of some of my "growing up" teen years before we moved away. My heart is with her family right now because "goodbye" is difficult, but rejoice in knowing that she is settling into eternity with her Savior. I am blessed to know this family.
