“ Elda was one of the very 1st friends I had when I moved to El Campo bck in the late 80's ... She quickly became my bestest friend ... She took care of me when I had no one ... She had such a kind & beautiful heart... I'm so saddened to hear of her passing... I remember the boys from when they were little (& boy were they bad lol)
Again... I'm so srry for y'all's loss

“ I always loved for Elda to come in the salon and do her color. She had the most wonderful laugh and it showed all over her beautiful face. Loved this girl. She was truly a wonderful lady and such a hoot.

“ RIP Elda Garcia Burroughs, you were so full of life and just wanted the best for everyone around you.

Your smile always reminded of your Dad. I'll always treasure the few times we met up with our cousin Alice Trevino, you two guys were so sweet, loving and crazy :) and now you both can celebrate together in heaven. Ride with God's speed. Prayers for all the Family.

“ Passed doing what she loved. Met her several years ago at a rally and everytime I saw her afterwards was always upbeat and smiles. She LOVED riding in the wind, her FB page shows that. She is riding with the angels now. Rest in Peace TEB sister!

“ I've always looked at her as more than just a friend. We shared an adventure to the east coast on motorcycle. Ummm come to think about it I ran around with her several times. Arkansas, Dallas, Austin, Houston, all over Brazoria county, oh and DC and back. No one has her warped sense of humor. So guess what I'm saying is yes she will be missed. RIP good friend.
