“ I worked with Elizabeth at the Smokehouse. She was a very lovely lady, everyone that knew her loved her, she always was cheerful and had the prettiest smile, always happy. I use to tease her about her red hair, I would call her Strawberry Shortcake, and she would laugh, I also teased her about putting shoes out on the window seal for the three wise men, a story she had told me about. We had a lot of fun at work. She will be in my prayers and thoughts, condolences to the family! You're with Jesus now Elizabeth! Amen!
