“ She is someone I loved and cared for immensely as my Aunt. While my grandmother, Albina, favored my brother as we were growing up, Aunt Milley showed a love and fondness for me, and was mutual. Her last years with her memory and mental capacity being greatly diminished, and myself being disabled, prevented the closeness we once shared, never the less I will always have her in my heart.

“ Dear Aunt Millie, We loved your closed top poppy seed and cottage cheese Kolaches. We thank you for the recipe and teaching me how to make them, even though they never turned out like yours. You and Uncle Dick could really lead a grand march. You were such good dancers. You inspire us to dance the Sunday afternoons away. Thank you also for visiting us after each of our babies were born, who are now 40 and 34. They were such special visits. Wish we would have had more time together. Please say hello to Uncle Dick and Polka On! We love, Ronnie and Ruth
