“ I just found out today that my godfather passed away. I never forgot when I was a little girl you came to my house on Christmas day and gave me my first doll. I'll never forget it, I wore that doll down, she was missing an eye one leg but i still cared for her. You were so patient with me. Love you padrino, you are now strong. Young and beautiful doing great work for our heavenly father.

“ Dearest children of Gene, we are so sorry for the loss of this great and mighty man! I say this because Gene was a man of few words until he knew you and then he was full of advice and stories. He was meticulous in everything he did and he loved your mother so much, it showed in the way he cared for her when she was ill. He even washed dishes and vacuumed the rooms, something he would never admit to (because he was a mighty man)! I came to know them both and loved them as my own parents. He loved his children and was so proud of each of you. When the grandkids came, well that was another story. You are in our prayers, I can imagine Irene meeting Gene with a big smile and I can imagine them resting in peace may the perpetual light shine upon them as they work on the flowerbeds in heaven. You have 2 powerful Saints in heaven praying for you.
