“ Everyone one loved Eula Mae. She never met a stranger and was everyone's best friend. I never saw her without her beautiful smile. She certainly made the community a better place because of her presence and getting things done. A beautiful life well lived and so loved. I know I will miss her but Heaven brightened when she moved thru those Pearly Gates. There was a welcoming crowd to greet her. And she was smiling.

“ For about the last twenty years, every time I had the pleasure of encountering Eula Mae in El Campo she was providing a ride, running an errand, or on her way to deliver something for a friend. If the road to God’s Kingdom is paved with caring and kindness, Eula Mae seemed to be traveling it constantly.
