“ I had the pleasure of taking care of her in Garden Villa. Years ago, I made sure to always bring her snacks, and activities to do. ❤️ I even brought her a TV, so she could have something to watch. She held a special place in my heart. She will be missed. Prayers for the family.

“ Faye, Judy Barbour and I spent many fun filled hours riding around Wharton and Matagorda counties. A stop at Sonic or the Dairy Queen was a given when we were together. We enjoyed each other's stories of days gone by. It was sad for us all when the lockdown happened. The three of us missed our outings. Faye was a good Christian lady and was certainly a learned Bible scholar thru her many years of study. We will miss our times together but now she is with the Lord Jesus Christ, her beloved parents and brothers gone before us. A life well lived and much loved. Toodie
