“ To Cookie and the rest of "Fred's " family members, Sadden to hear about "Fred " leaving us, did work for him and his Dad running a tractor back in the 1960's back in them days, think George placed the nick name "Che Che" or something like that as his handle, Them Sulak boys sure did drive some nice riders back in them days 1960's, didn't realize that Fred was a JAR HEAD, but knowing Fred, you can bet he was one BAD ASS JAR HEAD.

Cookie, sure hoping that your Mom, my Aunt Vickie cuts Fred some slack up there in HEAVEN!

“ Our deepest condolences to the entire Sulak Family. I have fond memories of Mr. Fred from when I worked at Kacer's Dairy King (along with Tim) in the Mid-Late 80's. There was not a day that went by that Fred would not come through the drive-in for his cup of coffee. We all knew exactly how he liked it and had it ready every time he drove up. He would always have a smile on his face and a kind word or two to share.

Scottie will miss his visits from when he would come into Superior for Parts.

RIP Fred; you will be dearly missed. May you be a Forever Angel to All your Loved Ones.
