“ *Sandra, you and David took such good care of your dad—he always had the best-decorated place, with pictures and art from his family. He made each person who visited him feel like he was so interested in how they were doing in their lives. He advised us years ago, and he wanted to be sure we turned out alright! “ It was always such a pleasure to visit Delores and George when Bobby and I would go out to their home to cut Delores' hair when he could no longer bring her to the salon. He always had such a great store of stories which were shared with much enthusiasm and color in his slow southern drawl. We always looked forward to our visits with cookies from the oven waiting for us. I am blessed to call both my true treasured friends. He was a devoted husband, father and grandfather always sharing pictures of the family. I know the angels were singing when he arrived in Heaven.
