She is survived by her daughter, Pamela Rodgers and husband Chad of Hilltop Lakes, TX; daughter, Pat MacLennan and husband Bill of McMinnville, OR; daughter, Alys Grier and husband Clyde of Louise, TX; and son, Shawn Moon of Ganado, TX. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Travis Spradlin and wife Amanda of Austin, TX, and Ashley Schoeneberg of Louise, TX, and one great-grandchild, Bentley Christian of Louise, TX, and many beloved family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 41 years, Vernon Moon; her parents; brothers, Isadore and Leon Erdelt; sister, Elenora Mach, and son-in-law, Arthur Schoeneberg.

She graduated from El Campo High School and worked as an operator at the local telephone company and went on to have many careers as a seamstress, service station owner/operator, house painter, furniture upholsterer and, above all, mother and homemaker. She always enjoyed social gatherings and served as president of the Matagorda Home Demonstration Club for several years. She was a member of Faith Lutheran Church and Women of Faith of El

She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her, but “we do not grieve as those who have no hope” because we will see her again in the presence of our Lord. In accordance with Geraldine’s wishes, there will be no funeral service.

“ Geraldine was always so funny and I always enjoyed seeing her at the Erdelt family reunions. I even worked with her painting our house one summer as a teenager. The world is a lesser place without her. My deepest condolences to all of you.
