“ Pesak family - We were saddened to hear about Grant's tragic death. He was one of those guys we just enjoyed being around. He had an engaging personality, and it meant so much to us that he always took the time to sit down and visit with Paul. He didn't just say his hellos, but he took the time to visit and share stories. I remember being at his house on Easter -- we had the hugest Easter egg hunt for all the kids in the backyard, and he just seemed to love every minute of it. I believe Bryce, Cole and Hunter had a bit of an advantage on the younger cousins! And spending time with Grant's family at Kevin and Erin's wedding in Missoula was another good visit. He knew Jesus, and that is what matters now. He will be missed as a Dad, a son, a brother, an uncle and a friend. Praying for all of you. Sue and Paul Phillips
