July 18, 2008 - September 18, 2022

Beloved son, brother, grandson, nephew and cousin; Ian Reid Garza found peace at the age of 14 on September 18, 2022 in San Antonio, Texas. He was born to Andrew and Marinna (Balderas) Garza in Wharton, Texas on July 18, 2008. He was their first and only son.

Ian was a rambunctious toddler who grew into a tender young man. As a child he was playful but selective with his attention closest to of course, his mom and dad. His cousins Adan and Blane were his first friends, but his mom and dad were always his best.

At the age of 6 he became a brother to his sister Lyla, a new accomplice to his mischief to whom he cherished in creating imaginary adventures.

Ian enjoyed playing video games, watching YouTube, and creating a space for himself to write stories. His creativity was a gift; as his name states, just like he was.

Ian was a devoted student and history buff always yearning for knowledge. He was an advanced high school freshman enrolled in college courses with a bright future ahead of him.

He is survived by his Dad and Mom (Andrew and Marinna Garza), his sister Lylabug (Lyla Garza), of Converse, Texas, his Grandma (Maria O' Canas Navarro), of El Campo, Texas, his grandparents Popeye and Wella (Tim and Deborah Luedecke), of Round Rock, Texas, his grandfather Mario Balderas, his great-grandmother Shirley Luedecke, his uncles, Sonny Lopez, Robert Lopez, Jesse Garza, Mario James Balderas, Uncle Meme (Meshach Balderas), and Uncle Achoo (Matthew Quintero), his aunts, Cassie Lopez, Natalia Lopez, Ashley Garza, Dayana Ramirez, Bethany Autry, Auntie Jai (Mandi Zapata), his cousins, Blane Cumberledge, Mattie Zapata, Grayson Quintero, Adan Lopez, Evie Lopez, Marcus Lopez, Hailee Lopez, Jaden Lopez, Illianna Lopez, Landen Lopez, Aniyah Lopez, Andrea Garza, Anthony Garza, Julian Garza, and Adrian Garza.

He is proceeded in death by his cousin Russell O'Canas, his aunt Nancy Garza, his grandfathers, Emilio Garza Jr., Benito Guevara, his great-grandparents Genaro and Guadalupe O'Canas, Lucio and Guadalupe Valdez, Wilfred Luedecke, and Antonio Martinez Sr.

“ I was his teacher in MS, I had him for two courses. He was so talented with computer science, and loved talking about video games. I will never forget his smile in my classroom. I found an assignment he did. A postcard to his sister. Sending my prayers for his family.
