“ Irene was always the sweetest person. She has been a true and valued friend. As niece to my best friend, Ula Mae Crowell, I had known of her, but particularly befriended her after my own husband passed away 11 years ago. She will be sorely missed.

“ Irene was at Mirafor for Rehab one Christmas. She came up for our evening Vespers, during which we read a most nostalgic Christmas War Story. She told me she couldn't hear it. I promised her a private reading. On Christmas Eve, she reminded me! After my husband was in bed, I went down and read it to her on her room. My great surprise was that her son, Scott, was still there and stayed for the story. A wonderful family Christmas Eve and I got to be with family! I loved her!

“ Irene was my family's friend as I grew up in EC in the 50's & 60's...she would wait on us when we went to Sears...I'll never forget her. After moving, I didn't see her again until I began spending time with my Cousin Mildred Spanihel in Louise...we would all have coffee together at Short Stop...always good times reminiscing....Please accept my sincere sympathy in her passing ❤️🙏 Cynthia (Chovanec) Fontana
